

Community Guidelines

Last Updated: February 6, 2026

Welcome to the Global Node Management community. These guidelines help us maintain a respectful, safe, and enjoyable space for all members and creators. By using our platform, you agree to follow these guidelines.

Our Core Values

Our community is built on:

- Respect: We treat everyone with dignity and kindness
- Authenticity: We value genuine connections and honest interactions
- Privacy: We protect the privacy and boundaries of all community members
- Safety: We maintain a safe environment free from harassment and harm

Be Respectful

Treat all interactions with kindness and respect.

- Remember there are real people behind every profile and message
- Communicate with courtesy and consideration
- Disagreement is okay; disrespect is not
- Use appropriate language at all times

Appropriate Communication

Keep all conversations appropriate and consensual.

- Do not send unsolicited explicit content of any kind
- Respect boundaries if a creator indicates discomfort with a topic
- Do not make demands or act entitled to responses
- Avoid excessive messaging or spam
- Keep conversations within the platform

Privacy and Discretion

Protect the privacy of creators and the community.

- Do not share, redistribute, or republish any content from the platform
- Do not screenshot, record, save, or download any content
- Do not attempt to contact creators outside the platform
- Do not share personal contact information
- What happens in the community stays in the community

Prohibited Behavior

The following behaviors are strictly prohibited and will result in immediate account termination:

Harassment and Abuse

- Harassment, stalking, or intimidation
- Threatening, abusive, or hateful language
- Sexual harassment or unwanted advances
- Repeated unwanted contact

Content Violations

- Sharing, redistributing, or republishing platform content
- Recording, screenshotting, or capturing content
- Using content for commercial purposes
- Attempting to bypass content protection measures

Privacy Violations

- Sharing others' personal information without consent
- Attempting to discover creators' real identities
- Attempting to contact creators outside the platform

Fraudulent Activity

- Impersonation of others
- Creating fake or multiple accounts
- Payment fraud or chargebacks after consuming content

Understanding Creator Boundaries

Creators have the right to set and maintain boundaries. Respect their choices and availability.

Response Time Expectations

- Creators are not obligated to respond immediately
- Response times vary based on schedules and message volume
- Membership provides access, not guaranteed response patterns
- Creators may be unavailable for extended periods

Personal Boundaries

- Creators are not obligated to share personal information
- Respect when creators indicate a topic makes them uncomfortable
- Creators are providing a service, not entering personal relationships

Consequences of Violations

Violations may result in:

- Warning: For minor or first-time violations
- Temporary Suspension: For repeated or moderate violations
- Permanent Termination: For serious violations (no refund)
- Legal Action: For severe violations involving illegal activity

Reporting Violations

If you experience or witness behavior that violates these guidelines, contact us immediately at support@globalnode.co with:

- A description of the violation
- The username of the person involved
- Screenshots or evidence (if safe to obtain)
- Date and time of the incident

Contact Information

Email: support@globalnode.co

Company: Global Node Management

Thank you for being part of our community and helping to keep it a positive, respectful space for everyone.